

COACH EDUCATION PATHWAY PROGRESSION MAP

Dodgeball-specific

This page outlines the progression of dodgeball-specific rules and officiating, technical and tactical knowledge coaches will develop as they progress through the British Dodgeball coach education pathway.

	Leader (junior)	Introductory	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assessment method:	Practical delivery	Practical delivery / Online quiz	Practical delivery / Assignment	Practical delivery	Practical delivery & Assignment
Rules & Officiating	Develop basic knowledge of rules and develop confidence officiating peers	Develop basic knowledge of rules and develop confidence officiating others	Develop knowledge of rules at all levels including equipment and spaces used	Develop improved knowledge of rules at all levels and become proficient officiating others	Develop thorough knowledge of rules at all levels and be able to develop the officiating ability of others
Technical	Know basic coaching points for main dodgeball skills	Know basic coaching points for main dodgeball skills	Know more comprehensive coaching points and skill development activities for main dodgeball skills	Able to teach main and lesser dodgeball skills using more comprehensive coaching points and correct the techniques of others	Able to teach all relevant skills using more tailored approach and correct & develop technique of others including developing physical fitness
Tactical	Have an awareness of some basic tactics of dodgeball	Have an awareness of some basic tactics of dodgeball	Know how to teach basic tactics of dodgeball	Able to teach more advanced tactics of dodgeball and develop other's tactical understanding	Able to teach the application of a range of advanced tactics to individuals and teams and develop tactical understanding of others

Coaches, leaders and teachers can access the British Dodgeball Coach Education Pathway and find further course information on the British Dodgeball coaching course webpage.

COACH EDUCATION PATHWAY PROGRESSION MAP

General Coaching

This page outlines the progression of non-sport specific coaching skills and knowledge coaches will develop as they progress through the British Dodgeball coach education pathway.

	Leader (junior)	Introductory	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3
Assessment method:	Practical delivery	Practical delivery / Online quiz	Practical delivery / Assignment	Practical delivery	Practical delivery & Assignment
Safety	Develop basic knowledge of safety when leading sessions	Develop knowledge of safety when leading sessions and safeguarding principles	Develop knowledge of safety when leading sessions and safeguarding principles	Able to lead safe sessions and apply safeguarding principles N.B. Independent coaches require safeguarding training when working with young people as part of minimum deployment criteria	Able to lead safe sessions and apply safeguarding principles and can monitor club coaches in a head coach role
Approaches	Develop ability to communicate clearly to knowledge clearly	Develop knowledge of how to communicate clearly, model and demonstrate and to differentiate	Know how to model, use coaching points, differentiate and how to understand the make-up of a group and alter approaches accordingly	Able to adapt input for different learning styles and use questioning and enquiry-based approaches to develop the understanding of others	Able to deliver comprehensive input consisting of methods listed previously and explain approaches linked to learning theory
Leadership	Develop confidence to lead small groups of peers through basic activities and games	Develop confidence to lead larger groups through basic activities and games	Know how to adapt leadership styles depending on group make-up and how to create a positive environment	Able to adapt leadership style to better achieve session objectives and to manage assistant coaches/staff	Able to lead effectively based on an understanding of the needs of teams and individuals and manage club coaches in a head coach role

Coaches, leaders and teachers can access the British Dodgeball Coach Education Pathway and find further course information on the British Dodgeball coaching course webpage.